There are two wonderful people in the world who, unfortunately, are too often "taken for granted." They give us many things that we ask for, but more important, they give us love, security, and guidance. They also have made many sacrifices for us.

We would like to do something for them to show our appreciation for all they have done for us. Therefore:

We, the Senior Class of 1960, dedicate our yearbook to you --

Some frightened little Freshmen came to Ashley School
But it wasn't very long till everything was cool.
We had a skating party and a picnic too,
And we got our school sweaters of Red & Blue.

We had another skating party in our Sophomore year,
And getting a new building made us want to cheer.
But more important than all of these things,
We got our prize possessions--our class rings.

We started off our Junior year with a lot of sales--
Magazines, cards, candy, and even bake sales.
We had a couple paper drives and one April day
We presented "Swing Your Partner," a western play.

The Senior year is our busy one
And very hectic, but lots of fun.
"Headin' For a Weddin'" was the name of our play.
Now we're working on our annual--busy every day.

We're earning all our money for a very good thing--
We're going on a class trip come next spring.
You've read above the high school history
Of we, the Class of Nineteen Hundred Sixty.

ASHLEY SENIOR CLASS

Class Will

We, the Senior Class, being of sound mind and body?? solemnly will a bottle of hair dye to Fred Frederick, a sharp razor so he can divide his 3 hairs into 6 to Mr. Arney, soap and water so she can wash her coffee cups to Mrs. Arney, all the papers we didn't do in English to Mrs. Wolfe, a loud speaker so she can be heard the first 5 minutes of the last assembly to Mrs. Hasselman, a large package of gum to Mr. Schlosser, all of our initiation left-overs to Mrs. Milks, a cake of ice to keep Mr. Hile cool in senior government, all the sour notes we sang in chorus to Mrs. Ramsay, all the boo boos we pulled in typing to Miss Gfeller, all of our meals to the cooks so they can gain weight, the skeleton of the frog we dissected in biology to Wade Libey, and the Riverdale basketball fans to our dear janitor.

As we leave Ashley High to our peers, we pass along our suggestions:

I, Sally Menzel, will the needle and thread Dale Reinhold willed me last year to Emilee Royal, whom I'm sure needs it worse than I do.
I, Sue Menzel, will my ability to be a twin to Emilee Royal so she won't have to make believe she's one just to get her picture taken twice.
I, Charlotte Robbins, will to Dixie Northouse my ability to be quiet in classes, in assembly and on the bus.
I, Sharon Greenwood, will a piece of fur on my class ring to Linda Bearss who really needs it.
I, Beverly Loucks, will my ability to get to classes on time to Bob Taylor, who has trouble in doing so.
I, Joan Schiffli, will my old pair of glasses to Dollie so that she can have a pair and a spare and start a collection to wear around her neck.
I, Shirley Brand, will what few steady nerves I have left to Raymond Berryhill because I shattered his several times.
I, Mickey Arnold, will my ability to stay cool, calm, and collected at all times, especially in history class, to Carol Reinoehl who seems to have trouble doing so.
I, Claude Kessler, will my revised edition of "How to Avoid Cops" to Jon Healey.
I, Fred Stout, will to Rex Hile a new spring for his Renault.
I, Ann Biggerstaff, will my ability to get along with the senior girls to Carol Whysong, who seems to have trouble in doing so.
I, Jeanetta Baumgardner, will my ability to stay slim to Mae Evers & Stella McFarlin, who are always complaining about being overweight.
I, Bob Davis, will my ability to keep my points on my drivers license to Mike Grogg who could use a few.
I, Lawrence Carpenter, will my gangster machine gun to Norman "Little Al Capone" Wright.
I, Ruth Ann Kanaga, will my ability to play the part of a mother in both the junior and senior plays to Sharon Kalb.
I, Myron Stackhouse, will my backward ways to Terry Walker who is the same.
I, Linda Phillips, will my ability to keep my comments in band to myself and to tune on the right note to Bob Taylor.
I, Jo Lynn Reinoehl, will my ability to play the piano to Larry Streich so he can become another "Big Tiny Little Jr." on the Lawrence Welk Show.
I, Rodney Mills, will my height to Norman Wright so he won't have to stand on a chair the next time he kisses his girl.
I, Bonnie Montgomery, will my ability to run around all the time to Iris Mock who always sits still.
I, Judy Wilhelm, will my ability to hug Larry Streich at a basketball game to anyone who has the nerve to do so.
I, Lilly Kessler, will my ability to stay out until 2:00 a.m. when I'm supposed to be in by midnight to any basketball boy who needs it.
I, Don Farrington, will my driving ability to Larry Mergy who needs some.
I, Anna Lee Wolf, will my headache obtained from trying to think of a will to Nancy Zonker.
I, Max Schiffli, will my good boy badge to Joe Brand.
I, Jim Deetz, will my rubber bands, squirt guns, paper wads, spit balls, paper airplanes, old pieces of chewed gum, pieces of chalk and pencils to Norman Wright who, I am sure, will make good use of them.
I, Pete Mais, will my ability to stay out late to any underclassman who thinks he can out guess the coach.
I, Bill Mergy, will all of my knowledge about government to Coach Hile.
I, Keith Smith, will my ability to get the girls to write my papers for me to John Miller.
I, Dave Swogger, will all my southern girls to Jerry Perkins.

As we approach the last of May
All the seniors seem happy and gay
What is in store for us?
How can we know?
For all of us will have
Our own row to hoe.

So long to our teachers!
So long to our friends!
The best of luck to everyone,
For our senior year now ends.
To our underclassmen we say farewell
For our time here has really been swell.
